

MUSIC EVENT

Girl in a Coma

Also Playing: Bitch and the Exciting Conclusion and Mocktigers

Sarah Quiara

Mohawk Patio

912 RED RIVER ST

512-482-8404

All ages

$10/$5 with Fun Fun Fun Fest
wristband

Sun. Nov. 9, 8 p.m.

We get something wrong?
corrections@decider.com

SEND

SHARE

PRINT

email this

SEND

Singer-songwriter-activist Bitch garners attention with a head full of multicolored dreads and frantically flowing thoughts on politics, love, and strength. She broke up her duo Bitch And Animal after a couple of releases on Ani DiFranco's Righteous Babe label, going on to record the 2006 solo disc Make This/Break This. She returns here behind a self-titled EP with a new backing band, The Exciting Conclusion. Without her exuberant sung-and-spoken delivery, electric violin, and conviction, her words and melodies might not always prove memorable on their own; consider her a more wild-spirited breed of folk troubadour, letting message race ahead of form, but at least adding some urgency. Headliner Girl In A Coma offers brash pop punk topped by singer-guitarist Nina Diaz's woozy, Morrissey-like croon. Opening: Mocktigers.